

This unique tour across the fairly unknown south of Morocco is a feast for your eyes, palate and nose. 1001 night on 2 wheels - an incredible experience!

If you think of Morocco, you automatically conjure up images from 1001 Nights, of colorful bazaars and historic Kasbahs, but also of endless sand dunes, barren mountains and palm-fringed oases.

You think of tajine with dates, of sugar-sweet mint tea and of the vast, deep blue sky that stretches across the unique landscape. Southern Morocco offers all this, but is much less traveled than the north, making it ideal for this very special e-bike tour.

The old royal city of Marrakech is worth a trip in itself, for us it is both highlight and starting point. From here we ride counterclockwise through the southern part of the country, discover the cities of Essaouira and Agadir, jump into the water of the Atlantic Ocean and ride up to the mountains of the Anti-Atlas. Here the desert rules and the landscape is spectacular!

Deep in the southeast of the country, the endless dune fields of the Sahara begin, a huge sandbox that invites you to play. A completely different game can be played in the High Atlas, which we cross on the way back to Marrakech. Spectacular roads like the Tizi n'Tichka Pass, breathtaking views everywhere, the fascinating, ancient fortified town of Ait-Ben-Haddou... Marrakech is truly not the only highlight of this fantastic tour!

- DÍA 1: Arrival in Marrakech
Your adventure begins with our Welcome Briefing in the hotel at 4 pm where you can meet the group.
- DÍA 2: Marrakech - Essaouira
We leave Marrakech and ride through the surrounding fields out into the desert. It stretches endlessly in all directions; you feel tiny and downright lost. Our destination is the coastal city of Essaouira, whose medina is the only one in Morocco with a chessboard pattern.
- DÍA 3: Essaouira - Agadir
Today we go to Agadir, a big and quite modern city. The road leads through dry, eroded landscape and rises up to almost 450 m. The most beautiful part is the last section, where we mostly follow the cliffs and beaches. If you have your swimming trunks with you, you are clearly on the winning side...
- DÍA 4: Agadir - Ida Ougnidif
Southeast of Agadir there is a quite densely populated plain that we have to cross, but it is worth it. because the mountains of the Anti-Atlas

	morning, because the mountains of the Tizi n'Tichka are tempting. Right after the reservoir at Aït Baha, the road climbs up and then even cracks the 1000-metre mark. Today's highlight is the ancient mountain village Tizourgane.
DÍA 5:	Ida Ougnidif - Fom Zguid The AntiAtlas offers impressive landscapes and we will enjoy them today. The most beautiful sections of the road, which leads up to over 1,800 m, we will of course negotiate by bike. Halfway up is the oasis town of Tata, which surprises us in spring with its lush green vegetable and grain fields.
DÍA 6:	Fom Zguid - Mhamid Today we ride into the Sahara, very close to the Algerian border, where large sand dunes await us. A walk or camel ride between the dunes, a spectacular sunset, the unique starry sky above the desert - it is like a dream!
DÍA 7:	Mhamid - Zagora Zagora is a quite large but very pleasant oasis town, especially in spring when it is not too hot yet and the fields are green. On the way there we also pass through Tamegroute, an important religious centre where you can buy beautiful, typical green ceramics. How convenient that our support van is never far away...
DÍA 8:	Zagora - Agdz Morocco as from the picture book is on the agenda today, we follow the river Draa, which often carries a surprising amount of water in spring. It supplies the countless date palm groves, which often fill the entire width of the valley. Along the way there are several kasbahs, often beautifully restored and transformed into charming hotels. The old Berber village of Tamnougalt is still really original and definitely worth seeing.
DÍA 9:	Agdz - Quarzazate A real adventure is the ride over the Tizi-n-Tiniffit, a 1,660 m high mountain pass that leads through a landscape rutted by wild gorges. Here the wind blows constantly and even in summer it can get unpleasantly cold. Don't forget your jacket! The destination is Ouarzazate, a large city that does not offer too many sights but is very popular as a film location.
DÍA 10:	Quarzazate - Aït-Ben-Haddou Aït-Ben-Haddou is certainly the most famous fortified city ("Ksar") in Morocco. Its location, appearance and atmosphere are so perfect that one might think it was just a movie set, but the village is real. However, most of the inhabitants have moved to the new town in the recent past. In order to enjoy the village and the journey here, we have kept this riding day quite short.
DÍA 11:	Aït-Ben-Haddou - Marrakech The highlight of every trip to Morocco is the Tizi'n Tichka Pass, at 2,260 m the highest in the country. The scenery along the way is breathtaking and spectacular and will remain in your memory for a long time, until the moment we roll into Marrakech and certainly much longer!
DÍA 12:	Departure from Marrakech Let's enjoy our final breakfast together and then set off on our journey homeward.
